MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Science and Technology

SUBJECT : Invitation to Address the INTELLIGENCE
REVIEW #1-69 (Seventeenth Running)

1. This confirms the informal arrangements for you to address the INTELLIGENCE REVIEW #1-69 on the topic "The Directorate of Science and Technology: Current Trends and Prospects." Your presentation is scheduled to be given on Tuesday, 10 December 1968, from 1:30 to 2:45 in Room 501, 1000 Glebe.

2. The focus of the INTELLIGENCE REVIEW is somewhat broader than a simple "review" or updating. While some discussion of recent and planned organizational changes may be necessary, it is subordinate to such broader considerations as trends, problems, and the significance of present or foreseeable developments, both within the Agency and in the intelligence community.

3. For your convenience, I list below the speakers from your Directorate and their topics:

Date	Name	Title	Topic
10 December	Charles Briggs	Director of Computer Services	How the Computer Serves Intelligence
11 December		Assistant Director of Scientific Intelligence	Significant Develop- ments in the Pro- duction of Scientific Intelligence
	David Brandwein	Director, FMSAC	Intelligence on Space and Missiles

4. For the two-week period of the course, all members of the class will have the SI, T, and KH clearances. If you plan either to include such material in your formal presentation or to make use of it in the discussion periods following your presentation, please notify us in advance so that proper security procedures can be put into effect.

5. Attached for your guidance in preparing your talk are:

- a. Schedule of the Two-week Course
- b. Course Objectives

A student roster will be forwarded to you as soon as it is available following close of registration.

6. We invite you to call upon the Office of Training for any assistance or support you may require for your presentation. Please contact [redacted] for any further information.
